Chapter 1 by Emily Cee

A baby girl was born, screaming and crying in the night. The doctors, doing as society told them, placed a necklace around her neck, shaped like half a moon. She would spend her entire life trying to find her other, with the missing half. He could be here, in this very hospital, perhaps in the next room, but she would not know. Alas, she would spend her entire existence, the one life she was given, searching for someone she wasn't even sure she would love, yet she did, because that is how society told her to behave. Sad, isn't it?
